

Chapter 15 – Section 3

Women & The War

- 1. Who was Rosie the Riveter and what did she represent?
- 2. What had the attitude been toward married women working before the war?
- 3. What kinds of jobs had women had before the war?
- 4. What kind of better paying jobs opened up as men were drafted into the armed forces?

- 5. What happened to the number of older and married women working outside the home during the war? Why?
- 6. What were 3 reasons women enjoyed working?
- 7. What was the job situation for African-American women?
- 8. What were 4 challenges working women faced?

- 9. What did the government assume would happen when the war was over?
- 10. What were 2 things returning servicemen expected when they got home?